GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS GREEN AND ROGERS TO HEALTH COORDINATING COUNCIL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Sandra B. Greene of Chapel Hill and Tim Rogers of Raleigh to the North Carolina State Health Coordinating Council.

Greene is a research associate professor of health policy and administration at UNC at Chapel Hill. She is a senior research fellow at the Cecil G. Sheps Center for Health Service Research. Greene received her Bachelor's degree in mathematics, her Master's degree and Doctorate in biostatistics from UNC at Chapel Hill.

Rogers is CEO of the Association for Home and Hospice Care of N.C. He is a member of the National Association of Home Care and Hospice board and chair of the National Forum of State Home Care and Hospice Executives. Rogers received the Dr. Ellen B. Winston Award for Outstanding Service to Home Care and Hospice in 1999. He received his Bachelor's degree in political science and history from UNC at Chapel Hill.

The council develops a draft state medical facilities plan that is recommended annually to the governor. The council holds hearings on the draft plan and responds to public comments received. There are 29 members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
